

ANN LANDERS

Same Old Bag of Bones

Dear Ann Landers: I am a career woman 41 but I look 10 years younger. I was divorced at age 29 after a most unfortunate marriage. (It wasn't another woman, it was another man.)

Six years ago I fell in love with the lawyer who handled my divorce. He is 50, handsome and well-known as an attorney. He told me he and his wife had lived as brother and sister for the past 10 years. He never speaks of his wife or their children but has assured me he will be divorced within three years (when their youngest child graduates from high school). I have promised to wait.

The problem is this: We never go to first-class restaurants or even to a movie or the theater. I am getting fed up on back-alley hiding places.

He has never introduced me to anyone he works with. I am attractive, well-dressed and I make friends easily. I cannot understand why he is ashamed to take me out in public. My friends who have met him have hinted that I am being played for a fool. What do you think?—GRAY SKIES

Dear Skies: Same old bag of bones, Dearie: married man ducking his wife and relatives and colleagues and anyone else who might recognize him. The first tipoff should have been his breach of professional ethics. Married lawyers are not supposed to dally with clients.

Your signature indicates that you are color blind. The skies are not gray, they are pitch black—and the ceiling is zero. Put an end to this back-alley affair before you find yourself permanently socked in.

Dear Ann Landers: Recently you visited in our city and the newspaper write-up said you had an extraordinary memory for names. Please, please tell me how you do it.

All my life I have been plagued by my inability to remember names. It has caused me a great deal of embarrassment and whenever it happens I tell myself I must be addled in the head.

Please, Ann, share your secret with those of us who need this kind of help.—FOREVER GRATEFUL

Dear Forever: The principal reason people do not remember names is that they don't bother to listen to the name when they are introduced. If you don't get the name on introduction, ask. No one will be offended. It is in fact a compliment because it shows interest.

Use the person's name when you speak to him and associate the name with a specific characteristic. Example: If the woman's name is Mrs. Fuerstenberg, and she's a doll, remember that Mrs. Fuerstenberg would come in first in a beauty contest. If the man's name is Mr. Power and he has a strong jaw, remember that Mr. Power has power. It needn't make sense—just so it serves as a memory book.

Lord deliver me from morons who make no effort to remember names and then try to excuse themselves by saying, "But I never forget a face."

Confidential to Is It Worth the Chance?: No, no, a thousand times no! By the time this character learns the rules of the game he'll be too old to make the team. Who needs that kind of trouble?

"The Bride's Guide," Ann Landers' booklet, answers some of the most frequently asked questions about weddings. To receive your copy of this comprehensive guide, write to Ann Landers in care of the Press-Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the Press-Herald, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

(C) 1968, Publishers-Hall Syndicate

European Trip Provided For Torrance 8th Grader

William Gonzales, 14, an eighth-grade student at Adams Elementary School, has been selected as one of 30 students from California to participate this summer in the Student Ambassador program.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gonzales of 2052 W. 236th St.

Students participating in the people-to-people program will leave the United States in June for a six-week trip to Europe.

While abroad they will visit Scotland, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, France, the Low Countries, and England.

Highlighting the tour will be homestays with several European families; tours of museums, historical spots, and other points of interest; and participation in social activities and sports with European young people.

The oldest of three boys, William will enter Torrance High School this fall where he hopes to study aeronautics. He is a member of the Civil Air Patrol and plans a career as a pilot.

WILLIAM GONZALES

HARD WORK AHEAD... Discussing plans for this year's activities are three officers of the harbor area United Way Board of Directors (from left) Elmer Wasson, board chairman for a second term, from Pacific Telephone Co.; Mrs. J. Carroll Monfort of Palos Verdes, second vice chairman and representative to the countywide United Way agency operations committee; and Robert Filson, Bank of America, third vice chairman. Not shown is Max Weinberg, first vice chairman, of the Community Hospital of Gardena.

United Way Volunteer Team Named To Spearhead Collection

Functions of the Harbor area United Way board of directors will be guided by an experienced team of volunteers serving as officers and representatives to countywide United Way management committees.

Returning for a second term as chairman for the local board is Elmer Wasson, division traffic supervisor for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph.

Wasson, who makes his home in San Pedro with his wife, Lois; daughter Nancy; and son, Tommy; attended USC and received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Occidental College.

Three vice chairmen will serve during the 1968-69 term. They include Max Weinberg, first vice chairman, Community Hospital of Gardena; Mrs. J. Carroll Monfort, Palos Verdes, second vice chairman; and Robert Filson, Bank of America, third vice chairman.

The harbor area representatives to the United Way general board which meets monthly in Los Angeles are Mrs. Lloyd Cook, Palos Verdes; Wasson and Weinberg.

Representative to the administration and finance committee is Vincent Bauchiero, Wilmington Bank of America. Fred Mill, Torrance, is the harbor area spokesman on the admissions committee.

Mrs. Monfort will take part in the regular sessions of the United Way agency operations committee. Father J. Augustine O'Gorman, St. James Catholic Church in Redondo Beach, is the Harbor area representative to the United Way allocation and budget policies committee.

Dr. Frances Clark, San Pedro, is a member of the county United Way program committee. Public information committee representative is O. Morgan Williams, Shell Chemical Company, Torrance.

Mrs. Louise Larsen, executive director of Toberman Settlement House, in San Pedro, is the Harbor representative to the United Way ACE Committee, Agency Council of Executives. Mrs. Allan Lind will serve on the CARE committee, council of United Way agency representatives and executives.

Challenge Platoon To Form

Plans for a special Marine Corps platoon which will undergo boot training as a unit have been announced here by M/Sgt. Dan Gaasch, Marine recruiter in the Torrance area.

To be known as the "Challenge Platoon," the unit will be enlisted in special ceremonies June 26. Young men between 17 and 28 are eligible to enlist for two, three, or four years under the Marine Corps delay program.

Young men enlisting under the program will be given a series of tests during boot training to determine the technical schools and special assignments.

Additional information may be secured from Sergeant Gaasch at 2165 Torrance Blvd.

Riviera Medical Staff Sets Meeting Tuesday

The quarterly meeting of staff at last year's election will assume his duties June 21 at a formal installation ceremony to be held at the Palos Verdes Country Club.

Guest speaker for the meeting is Dr. Stephen Russell, internal medicine, who will discuss and demonstrate a kidney dialysis machine.

Included on the program will be a film about dialysis from UCLA medical school. Arrangements were handled by Dr. Vincent de Cnutilis, Riviera anesthesiologist and staff member of the university.

Dr. William Basque, ENT, chosen as 1968-69 chief-of-staff.

Contract Awarded For Drain

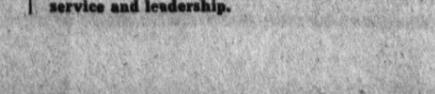

Herb Smeltzer Construction Co. of Rolling Hills Estates has been awarded a $94,233 contract by county supervisors for installation of additional storm drain facilities in the Lomita area. Supervisor Burton W. Chace said today.

The firm submitted a low bid for the work to the County Flood Control District. It ran $27,124 less than the engineer's estimate.

Construction is due to get under way within two or three weeks and will require approximately six months to complete, Chace said.

The work is identified as Project No. 687 and consists of nearly a mile and a half of reinforced concrete pipe conduit beginning in 254th Street west of Western Avenue, running in 254th Street to Walnut Street, in Walnut to Ebony Lane, and in Ebony Lane to Lomita Boulevard.

HONOR EXECUTIVE... Supervisor Burton W. Chace (right) presents a scroll from the Board of Supervisors to Jack K. Horton, recently named chairman of the board of the Southern California Edison Co. Horton was honored for his many years of civic service and leadership.

Give Up College, Girls, And Become a Stewardess

Don't waste your time in college, girls. With today's modern age, those four years are lost years. And the money is wasted.

Take up flying as a stewardess, and who knows, one day you may be lucky enough to serve me—or better, be interviewed by me.

On my trip recently to the Orient I checked with Canadian Pacific Airlines for their requirements for girls who wish to be come stewardesses. They seem easy enough, and the company accepts girls of all nationalities.

COUNT MARCO

Personality, not beauty, counts the most. Get at least two years of work background before applying.

Some airlines now waive this, but any experience in public contact work, such as store sales or reception jobs, gives you a better chance.

You must have a high school diploma, be between 20 and 30 years of age, have a clear skin, no glasses (no contacts either, says CPA) and have all your own teeth.

A most ridiculous requirement I hope Canadian Pacific drops immediately is this: "You must have your own natural hair color." That may be necessary for their railroad conductors, but for an airline stewardess? Never!

Girls are processed through a training program in a ground school for about a month, which doesn't seem too difficult, considering that only about one girl per class ever drops out.

Any ordinary job requires you to work at least 40 hours a week, but a stewardess flies only 60 hours a month, or about a week and a half's work per month. The base pay is $404 a month, but with overtime (because many of the girls actually fly about 80 hours) the pay jumps much higher. While away from home the stewardess is given a food and hotel allowance.

Now you can see why I advise young girls to choose an airline career. What else could offer them so much excitement, travel and opportunities?

Here are some travel trips offered by Canadian Pacific to women travelers:

Check everything through your luggage. Don't overload yourself with bits and pieces of hand luggage. There is absolutely nothing a woman needs, except perhaps her own personal cosmetics, that isn't supplied free (including toothbrushes) by the airline.

Dress comfortably, and leave off your girdles, particularly for long trips.

And now I have one suggestion for the airline, in fact, I've made it to every airline: Please do something about your terrible coffee!

Volunteer Leaders Honored

March of Dimes volunteer leaders from 25 cities from the Western Bay Area including Torrance will attend the annual award dinner Monday.

It will be held at the Buggy Whip Restaurant, Westchester.

Awards of Appreciation will be presented to the volunteers, newspapers, and radio stations for the contributions to the past 1968 March of Dimes campaign.

The health agency is currently engaged in fighting birth defects, America's second greatest destroyer of life.

The March of Dimes' former battle against polio has virtually conquered the disease.

In Los Angeles County, an average of only three polio cases appear annually.

The public is invited to attend and those desiring reservations or information are requested to phone the March of Dimes county office.

The Press-Herald will be among those newspapers honored.

Press-Herald Sunday Crossword

(Answer on Page A-7)

- ACROSS: 1-Demonstrate, 2-Confuse, 3-Confuse, 4-Strunks, 5-Superlative suffix, 6-Tastes, 7-Turning points, 8-Diphthong, 9-Units, 10-Provisional, 11-Clutton, 12-Fire, 13-Move, 14-Man's name, 15-Deserter, 16-Actor Walter, 17-Forgive, 18-Electric current, 19-Mexican dish, 20-Harpichord, 21-Select, 22-Constantly, 23-Constantly, 24-Constantly, 25-Vampire, 26-Motion, 27-Kishan utensil, 28-Short story, 29-Canopy, 30-Deaf, 31-Lacerated, 32-Defeat, 33-Stupid person, 34-Trail, 35-Trail, 36-Gearing, 37-Apparatus, 38-English queen, 39-Aurochs, 40-Ancient, 41-Benoid!, 42-Roman number, 43-Conclusion. DOWN: 1-Apple pulp, 2-Confuse, 3-Confuse, 4-Strunks, 5-Superlative suffix, 6-Tastes, 7-Turning points, 8-Diphthong, 9-Units, 10-Provisional, 11-Clutton, 12-Fire, 13-Move, 14-Man's name, 15-Deserter, 16-Actor Walter, 17-Forgive, 18-Electric current, 19-Mexican dish, 20-Harpichord, 21-Select, 22-Constantly, 23-Constantly, 24-Constantly, 25-Vampire, 26-Motion, 27-Kishan utensil, 28-Short story, 29-Canopy, 30-Deaf, 31-Lacerated, 32-Defeat, 33-Stupid person, 34-Trail, 35-Trail, 36-Gearing, 37-Apparatus, 38-English queen, 39-Aurochs, 40-Ancient, 41-Benoid!, 42-Roman number, 43-Conclusion.

